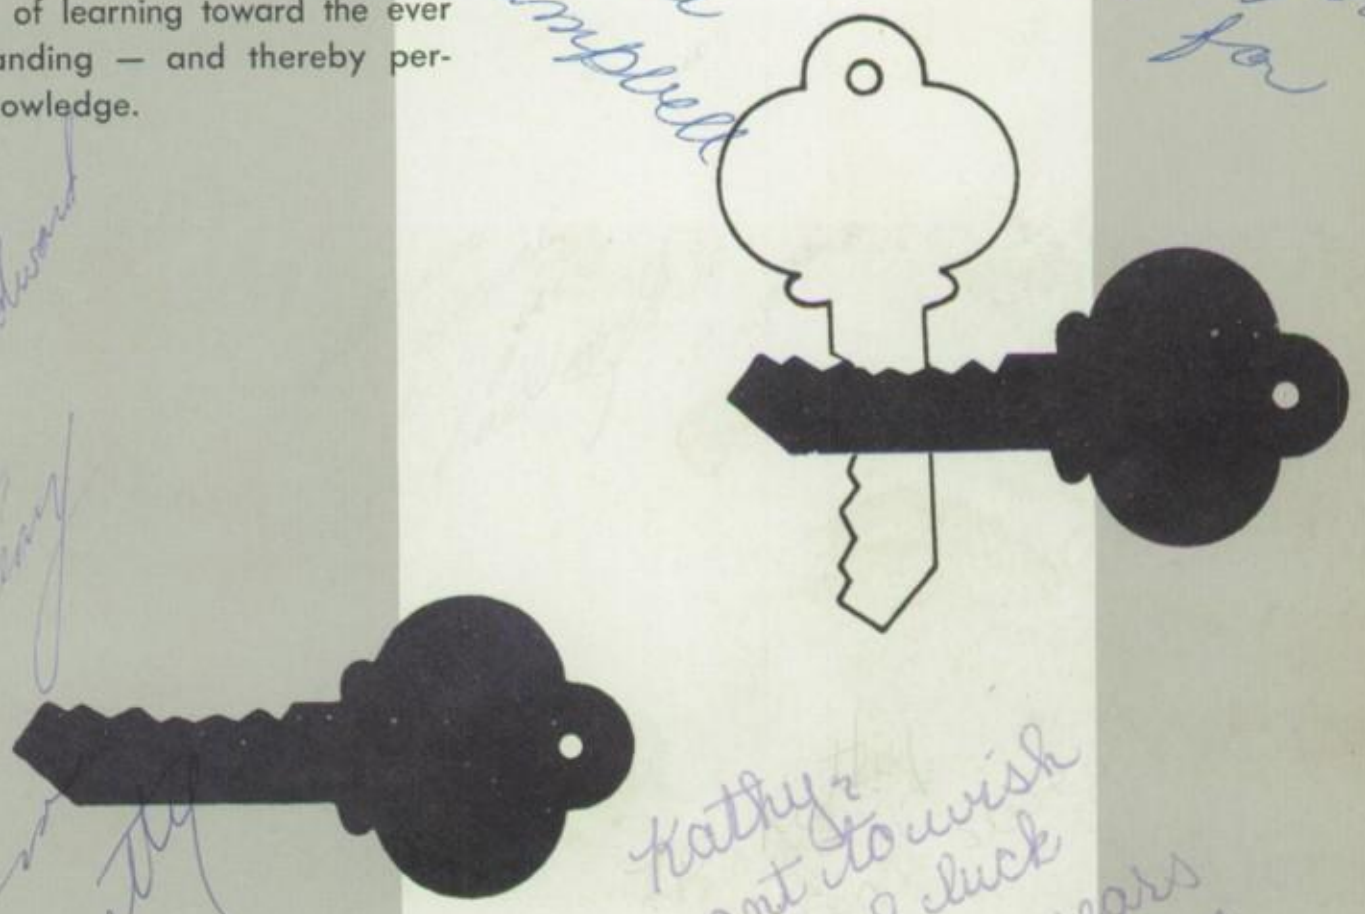
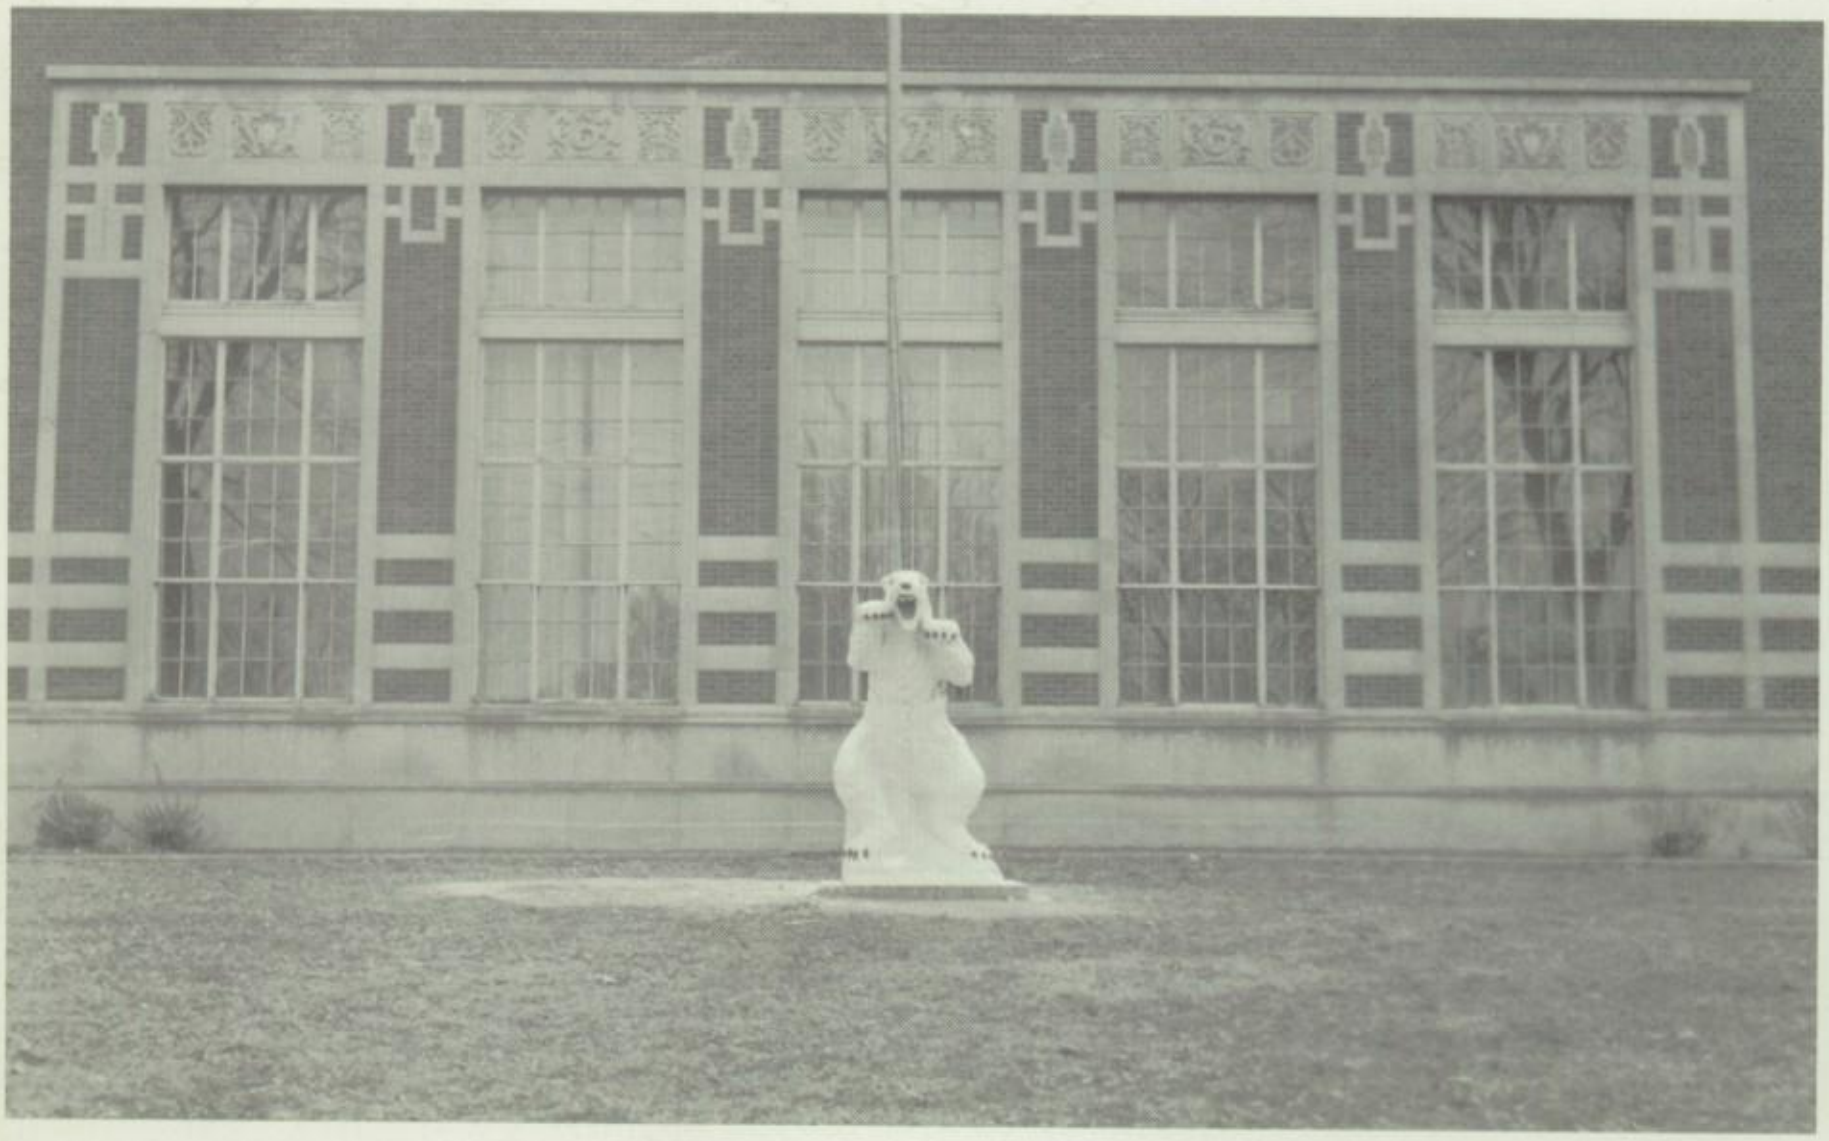
"The golden key that opens the palace of eternity."
(Milton)

Such is knowledge; a golden key to happiness and success. The purpose of this Saga is to keep alive the memory of the high school years — years devoted to acquiring knowledge. May we continue along the path of learning toward the ever evasive goal — human understanding — and thereby perpetuate man's eternal quest for knowledge.



FOREWORD



There is a new addition to Woodward High School this year. The polar bear, whose name is Polaris, has been acclaimed as Woodward's mascot.

MENT

IN RECOGNITION

The Saga Staff wishes to recognize Miss Amy Miller, who leaves Woodward this year, having served as assistant principal and dean of girls for thirty years. She has listened sympathetically to thousands of problems and unfailingly offered prudent advice. Miss Miller — our heartfelt thanks.

ADMINISTRATION

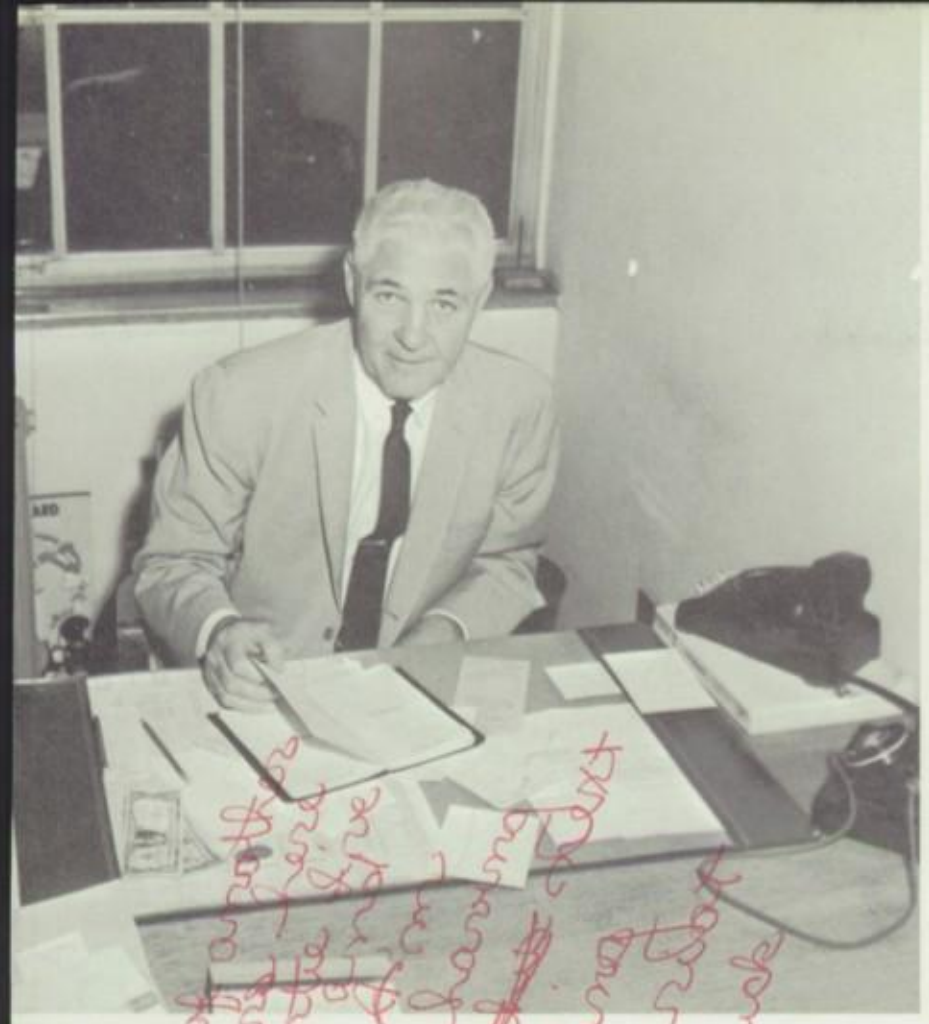
Mr. Rettig is Woodward's principal booster.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Success is the result of self-discipline, hard work and a burning desire to press on until the goal is reached. Woodward students have shown this year, that they want to succeed. Progress has been their goal, and we believe, they have attained it.

Good luck, Seniors, and remember — things don't just happen — you make them happen.

Robert D. Rettig



Woodward's social calendar is governed by Mr. David Krost, assistant principal in charge of activities.

Mr. Virgil Sloan shines as assistant principal in charge of general administration and dean of boys.

Miss Ethel Kerlin, busy assistant principal in charge of instruction, advises new teachers.

Mrs. Maxine Mills, dean of girls, has an excellent answer for everything.

Miss Amy Miller, assistant principal and dean of girls is an ever present help to those in trouble.

Mrs. Vera Moorman, college counselor, guides students in planning for further education.

Mr. Darrell Clay, dean of boys, officiates calmly and efficiently.

Mr. Glover's Art class is busy drawing.

These lads and lasses have contributed to the success of the Junior Class. Through them and other fellow students they have tried to maintain the high standards of Woodward High School.

In the future great things are expected of you!

SOPHOMORES

CLASS OFFICERS

FIRST ROW: Treasurer Sharon Curtis; Sergeant-at-Arms Ernie Hollowell, and Reporter Ruth Hessman. SECOND ROW: Vice President Pat Kozlowski, President John Shova, and Secretary Janet Maish.

The election of officers brought enthusiasm into the Sophomore Class of 1960-61. The highlight of the year was the annual Sophomore Dance, which proved to be a great success. The ordering of class rings and participation in school functions enabled the Sophomores to have an eventful and fulfilling year.

PERIS

We are the Periclean girls,
The sweethearts of Woodward High.
Our motto is "second to none,"
To fulfill it we always try.

Our colors are white and blue,
For purity and honor true.
Loyalty and devotion to duty,
Periclean we give to you.

For years this song has echoed at the Peri meetings.

Mr. Rettig gives a pep talk at the Student Council mass meeting.

An interclub council was an important achievement in student government this year. More students were able to offer their services due to the newly formed Commissioners system. Members drafted a new constitution and participated in an interesting panel discussion. They also sponsored a Christmas dance, "Mistletoe Magic," and took care of the business end of the "Extrav."

"Here's a new idea, Mike." Mr. Robie, our fun-loving advisor.

SAGA

Even though school is dismissed at 3:00, a dim light can be seen in room 252. To the SAGA STAFF it is a home away from home. Behind a pile of pictures and layouts can be seen an eager worker trying to meet a deadline.

"It all seems to be here." Bonnie Neff, Barbara Lewandowski, Business Manager, and Carol Houghtell.

"Don't you think we could use these?" Judy Nellis, Underclassman Editor, Assistant, Eva Clifton and Harriet Michalak, Junior Editor.

"Always check final layouts for accuracy." Sharon Malkowski, our energetic Editor-in-Chief and Michelle Jaworski, Assistant.

"Looks pretty good, huh?" Sharon Peters, Faculty Editor, Janet Stanger assistant to Beverly Johnson, Club Editor.

STAFF

Then comes the unpopular task of writing copy. The last shipment of the yearbook is sent to press with a fond hope that all goes well. Hard work and many sacrifices are the ingredients of the 1961 SAGA.

"Make sure lens are clean." Mike Epperly, Photographer and Boys' Sports Editor assisted by Jack Schwyn.

"How do you like this layout, Bess?" Bob Hardesty, Assistant Boys' Sports Editor and Bess Hatzinikolis, Girls' Sports Editor.

"Look at this, girls." Marilyn Scheerschmidt Assistant to Eileen Roznoski, Senior Editor and Vicki Young, Copy Editor.

Time out for a friendly smile. Carolyn Danicke, Assistant Editor and Joanne Grabner, Make-Up Editor.

Susan Getz, industrious Editor-in-Chief.

TATTLER

The staff worked diligently to bring a new look in the Tattler to Woodward students. Due to the change from letter press to offset printing the paper was made smaller but contained more pictures.

The band exhibited variety in its half-time shows. The season began with a Dutch show and ended with a salute to George Gershwin in the form of "Rhapsody in Blue." In the interim, the band presented a fairy tale, "Snow White," a Broadway show, "Destry Rides Again," and a tribute to Spain with music from "Carmen." Through the tireless effort of band members we enjoyed these colorful half-time shows which have become very much a part of Woodward.

WOODWARD Polar Bears and the CLAY Eagles battled to a 0 to 0 tie. Since neither team started well, it was not until the fourth quarter that the teams began a substantial drive. With Patterson, Truss, and Mathias hitting away at their line until the final play of the game, we plunged into the end zone for what apparently was a touchdown. A penalty nullified the play, thus ending the game in a deadlock.

Woodward boosters experienced many tense moments until the very end of the WOODWARD-MACOMBER tilt. The final score was 18 to 14 with Woodward winning its first City League game. Two Robinson-to-Truss aerials gave Woodward its first scores. Larry Carter, 230 pound fullback, accounted for our third score which clinched the game.

Having lost our first string quarterback, Jim Robinson, our attack lost its normal co-ordination. This enabled CENTRAL to acquire an early twelve to nothing lead in the first half. In the second half a determined WOODWARD team scored on a well executed roll-out pass play by Saba to Kornowa. At the final gun, the scoreboard read a 12 to 6 defeat.

All We Expect Is 100% Effort

During the 1960-1961 basketball season the Woodward Polar Bears fought some close battles but ended with an 18—0 record for the season. Inexperienced ball players under new leadership often hampered the Woodward cause. We are justly proud of our boys' EFFORT which will surely lead to greater achievements in the future.

Presentation of 1960-1961 basketball squads by Gentleman Jim.

"Give your all, boys, for Woodward!" says Coach Knierim.

ST. FRANCIS gave WOODWARD its first defeat of the season 65 to 52. The Knights led all through the game even though the Bears trimmed the margin to within 10 points. Jerry Barker led the scorers with 16 points.

SYLVANIA pushed past WOODWARD 49 to 41. The Bears fought back and scored 17 points in the third quarter without much avail. Sophomores Jerry Barker and Jim Leininger scored 12 and 10 points, respectively.

The WOODWARD Bears playing on their home floor were handed their 9th defeat of the season 57 to 50 by SCOTT. Woodward took a brief 2—0 lead and tied the game 14—all but were unable to go ahead. Jerry Barker and Mike Saba scored 15 and 14 points respectively.

The Knights try to block Mike Saba's tip-in.

In our first encounter with the CENTRAL Irish, WOODWARD was walloped by a score of 61 to 28. After a 2—2 deadlock the Bears were never able to take the lead. The Polar Bear quint, however, rallied in the second period and closed the gap to within 3 points. Mike Saba paced the Bears with 8 points.

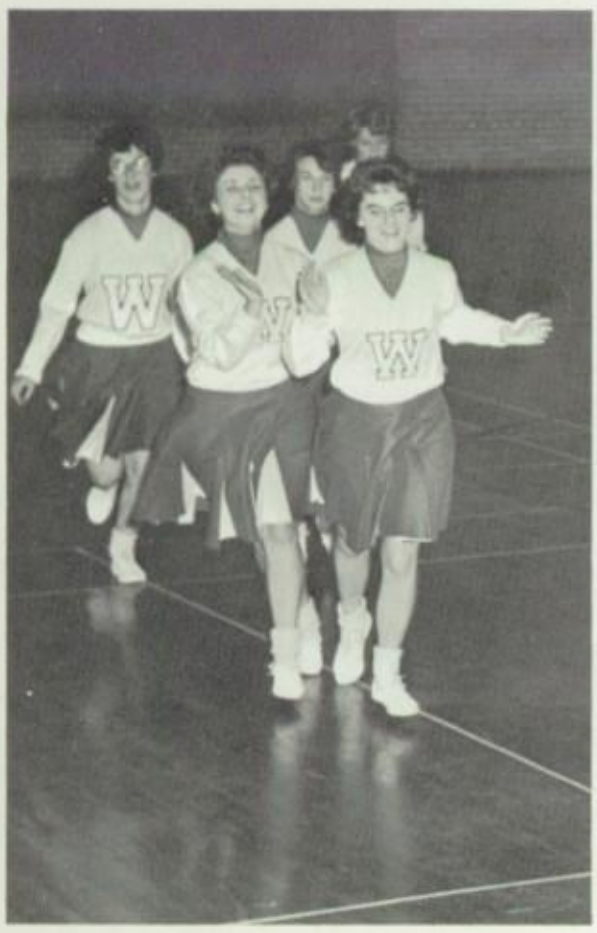
Pivot

Compiling a 22 to 8 lead at the end of the first quarter, WOODWARD was unable to overcome CENTRAL'S lead. By the end of the game the scoreboard read 74 to 52 with Woodward on the short end. Jerry Barker led our scorers by putting 14 points through the hoop.

Coach Knierim briefs the boys on new defensive strategy.



A rousing cheer for our team!!

LIMA — CENTRAL withstood a last quarter rampage by the Polar Bears to pull out a thrilling 74—72 victory. WOODWARD had five men in double figures: Bednarski, Barker, Saba, Kornowa, and Rose. The high man was Dennis Rose with 18 points.

FRESHMEN

GIRLS'

A game of checkers is enjoyed by these girls from moderate gym class.

A friendly smile and a hearty welcome are what the girls in gym classes can look forward to from their teachers. Each teacher tries to see that the girls maintain the teamwork which is necessary for good spirit. Volleyball, baseball, and basketball are some of the games in which these girls participate to show their true Woodward teamwork.

Watch — I got it!!

"Merry-go-round" is a favorite pastime for these girls to have fun.

SPORTS

They're tallying up the scores to see who won!

Good sportsmanship is the main ideal which these girls obtain, whether they win or lose. After school intramurals are offered to those girls who wish to further their athletic standards. They achieve a satisfaction of knowing they have reached the ultimate of respect and fair play in their true Woodward manner.

Mrs. Schwanger gives instructions to her class on what the activities for that hour will be.

A goal is attempted by one of our female athletes.

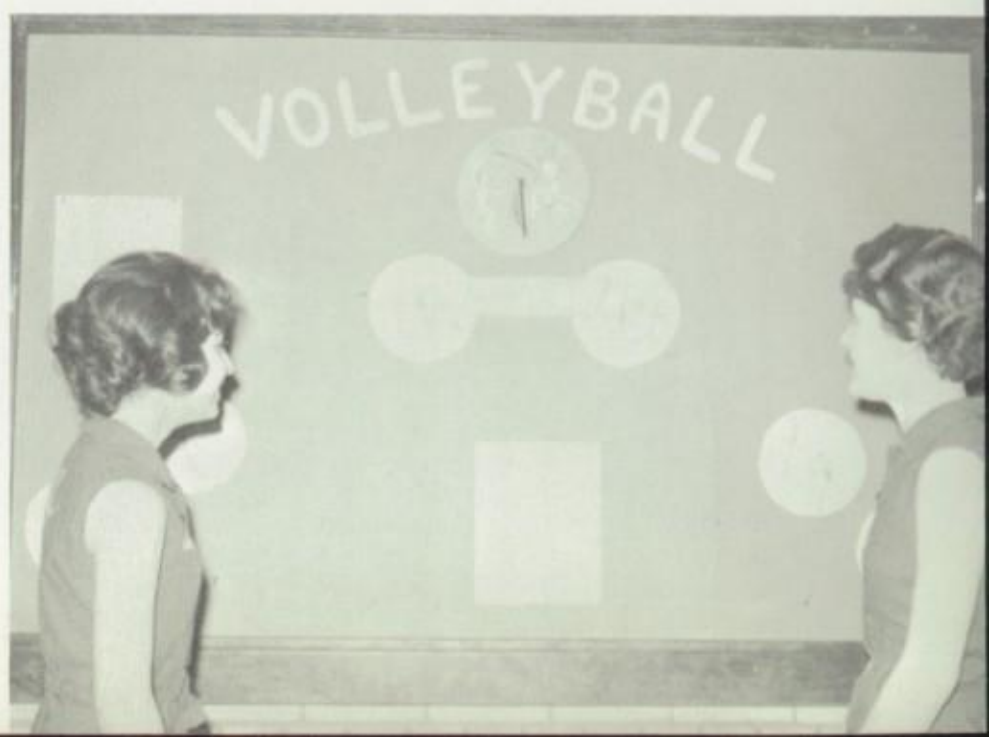
A game of badminton keeps these girls active before class begins.

Keeping up with their exercises helps these girls keep physically well adjusted.

Jump-Jump-Jump-Jump!

Baseball — an all time favorite summertime sport.

Interested Juniors pause to observe the bulletin board in the girls' gym.



Ping-Pong is demonstrated for us by two capable players.

SENIORS

In 1957 a group of bewildered Freshmen entered through the doors of Woodward High School. A whole new world was opened with a good education and spirited activities paving the way. Through the years ambitious and hard-working class officers and committees made the social events a huge success. On June 8, 1961, the Seniors shall graduate with fond remembrances and heartfelt thanks to everyone for the greatest years of their life.

Best of Luck always &
